I did start drafting a response, but did not finish. I will this week, if you want to respond accordingly.
Thanks.

Anne,

Did you have responses to the letters?

Thanks,

Dear Gary Miller:

9768610

Thank you for sending the responses. There were, however, only three responses and there were close to 23 letters sent to you and Anne Foster. Were they not received? I sure hope you have them because so much of the lessons I wanted them to get out of writing the letters had to do with writing to an actual person and receiving a response so they could learn that their voice can make a difference in the world.

Thanks for helping me out with this goal.

Eva Skrande
